

These are the 10 most common nose types - which are you?

Alice Sholl 27 October 2016

Many of us have love-hate relationships with our noses. While they're totally central to our faces, unlike our eyes and mouths we either go for it and get a nose piercing or just leave them be.

But in fresh nose-related news, there are apparently 10 main different nose types out there, so if yours doesn't feel like it fits properly on your face, thank goodness you can at least fit it into a category.

Here they are, according to facial cosmetic surgeon Dr Julian De Silva. Do you recognise yours?
